Minister Vandervelde, who is one of the leaders of tories, you always proved yourselves minister of munitions. Minister Vandervelde, who is one of the leaders of the socialist party in Belgium, insisted that the conference should declare itself unreservedly for the restoration of his native land. There was no opposition to this, but it was decided not to attempt to deal with the thorny question of Alsace-Lorraine.

Algernon Lee, the American representative and socialist candidate for the governorship of New York, reviewed the effect of the war on socialist organizations in America.

He said that during the first year the influence was very depressing, people being more or less thrown off their balance, but that they have thoroughly recovered now. Mr. Lee said that though a small socialist wing in America is pro-German and perhaps a somewhat larger section definitely anti-German, the great bulk of the party thought it would be best if neither side was crushingly defeated.
